

Brian Haynes Named CEO of Rainier Connect

For Immediate Release

May 29, 2007

Tacoma, WA – Brian Haynes has been promoted to President of local telecommunications company, Rainier Connect. The company's Board of Directors voted unanimously on the decision on Friday, May 25, 2007.

Brian will be the fifth generation of the Haynes family to serve as CEO of Rainier Connect, following his father Arne "Skip" Haynes, who served as Chief Executive Officer for the last 17 years.

Skip Haynes will continue to serve Rainier Connect as Chairman of the Board, contributing to the long term growth and success of the company. He will also be responsible for legislative and regulatory activities related to revenue generation.

About Rainier Connect

Since 1910, Rainier Connect has been a leader in providing advanced voice, video and data services to South Pierce and Lewis Counties. The company is strongly committed to service excellence, customer support, and providing outstanding value in every solution they provide.