

Rainier Connect Receives Spotlight on Business Award

For Immediate Release

June 26, 2007

Tacoma, WA -- Yesterday, Rainier Connect was honored at the Tacoma-Pierce County Chamber's 2007 Spotlight on Business Awards when they won in the event's Large Business category.

The award ceremony, held at the Greater Tacoma Convention Center, is an annual event recognizing the contributions small businesses make to Tacoma and Pierce County. Fourteen finalists were recognized and winners chosen in four categories; Small, Medium, Large and Non-Profit business.

"It's a great honor to receive this recognition from our peers, but the opportunity to serve our customers is our biggest reward. All of us at Rainier Connect would like to thank the Tacoma-Pierce County Chamber for their commitment to the future of small business in our area."

Other winners include Three Chicks Catering, Forza Coffee Company, and Fair Housing Center of Washington.
