TACOMA, WA – It was recently announced that Brian Haynes has been promoted to General Manager of Rainier Connect. As General Manager, Haynes will be overseeing all operations for the company. After graduating from college in 2000, Brian took a sales position at a Rainier Connect subsidiary in California. Haynes' energy and business acumen helped him to excel, allowing him to be promoted to Vice President of Sales just two years later. Since then, Brian has continued to be successful, acting as Senior Vice President for Rainier Connect. This success has recently been noted by the Tacoma business community, when Brian was named as an honoree for the Business Examiner's 40 Under Forty awards.
